Hello Sir, following is what I have been upto till now:

I started my career as a consultant with Zensar Technologies in 2000. I got trained as an Oracle DBA to work for P&O Nedlloyd (world's 2nd biggest shipping company). I left the company when it was acquired by Maersk in 2007. Then I joined Synechron Technologies which was only 400 employees then and grew up in ranks alongwith the company. By the time I left Synechron as Director & Head of Database Centre of Excellence in 2013, it crossed 5000 employees mark & crossed revenue of $500 million.

In 2013 I thought of starting something of my own, hence the idea of preschool Kidzee cropped up.

Currently alongwith the preschool , I am also working for an Institute as Director for Strategic Collaboration.

Alongside all this I am working on two startup products.

I play badminton everyday & learning guitar.

Hope this is ok. See you tomorrow.

Dear Prof. Khaladkar,

Thank you for the feedback.

I've already discussed point #1 with our campus hiring team, based on our earlier conversation. The hiring lead agreed with point #1 but informed that the issue surfaced two years ago and has been addressed last year; the campus hiring efforts are now integrated across Sapient Nitro and Sapient Global Markets . The hiring lead has also informed me that Sapient hasn't visited the AIT campus last year and therefore the impact of integration may not have been visible to the institute thus far.

I'll discuss the other points in your email below and I'll hopefully have some feedback to share before my Pune trip.

Thanks
Dhruv

Dear Dhruv ,

There are few points

1. Generally we struggle get the proper idea whether S G M will visit or Nitro . That is the reason , preparation time remains less .
2. From last year Sapient started keeping eligibility criteria for A I T . In the past they never kept any cut off for the process . As our strength is very less , it will better to visit keeping No Criteria (NC) .
3. Overall planning regarding visit needs improvement , in terms of intimating the campus couple of months advance , your stance on following NASSCOM guidelines . Whether you visit in first semester or second semester .
4. Apart from campus recruitment , there is no connect of Sapient with our institute . On other side , other leading industries are closely associated through different engagement programs like tech competitions , soft skills programs , inviting TPOs to NCR and conduct awareness program . (In the last week I had been invited to ZS ,Gurgaon office along with other 15 TPOs all across nation .

5. Most important feedback , from last year Sapiant has stopped taking Electronics branch students . It can not be understood . Etc guys are very sharp in logical reasoning , though they lad in software mastery , which can be gained in 3 months .

I hope , this will help .

You are welcome !

Dear Sir:

I am an AIT alumnus (Class of 1998) and will be traveling to Pune next month. I am keen to visit the institute during my upcoming trip and have the following queries related to the institute's policies/rules for campus visits.

I'll appreciate if you could respond to these or forward them to the designated authority:

1. What are the timings (weekdays) during which visitors are allowed on campus?
2. Please could you advise me if there is any specific permission to be obtained for campus visits?
