Debate, dramatics and Quiz club, also known as DDQ club, achieved glories under the efficacious guidance of Dr Sanjiv M Sansgiri, led by the student secretary Yash Choudhary. The club provides a fun way for students of all abilities to develop their oratory skills. We use a variety of activities to assist students in developing critical thinking and confident communication skills, as well as increasing their knowledge of the world through a variety of quizzes.

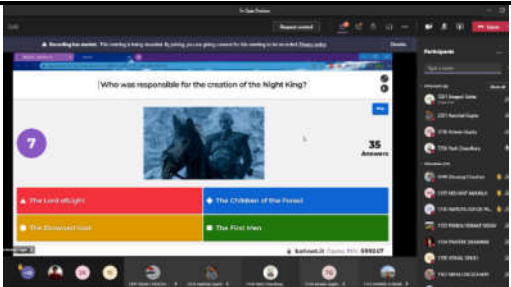

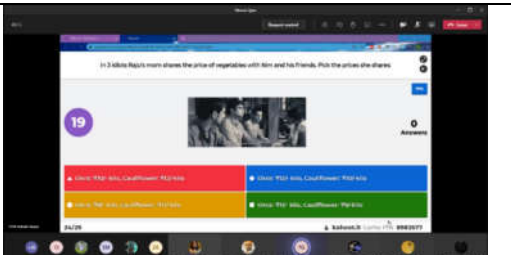

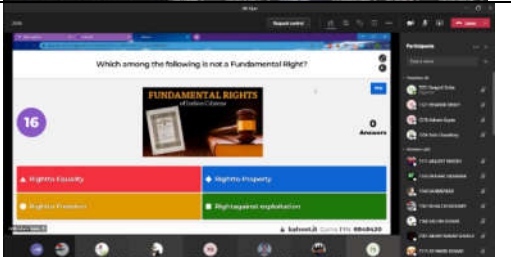

Despite the time of crisis, the DDQ club has successfully conducted two events “Shower Thought Debate” and “Quizzerati Weekends”. The "Shower Thoughts Debate" is a semi-formal event in which each participant is offered a mundane idea or concept and must come up with imaginative ways to justify his or her point of view. The second event, Quizzerati Weekends, was an extended quiz event that took place over three weekends with six sub-events for six different genres (TV shows, movies, G.K., sports, music, Anime) using the Kahoot platform, and both events were run on Microsoft Teams. All of the office-bearers and DDQ club members put in a lot of effort to make these events a success. We are optimistic that AIT College will continue to fly the college flag high in the college quizzing and debating circuit in the years to come, based on the large pool of young talent and the appropriate platform provided by the club.
