Session plan/Brochure/Document/overall report of the activity	Students from First year to fourth year were asked to write dialogues with a storyline on blank comic strips. The event was conducted by the Magazine Board in the remarkable hall of famed General BIPIN CHANDRA JOSHI (RETD.) HALL. Around 70 people participated in the event. The templates were from movies, comic series, and Japanese anime which the students found very exciting. The event continued for an hour and half exactly. The students wrote their stories with full enthusiasm and creativity. The strips were distributed such that adjacent students were given different strips. The board received a massive response after the one hour was over. The event was also a club PR event which greatly helped in the coming interviews of the club. Comicstaan was an event that was initiated to amplify the creative minds of the students who participated. The results were declared two days later.
Program Outcomes	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Creativity & Innovation – Encourage imaginative thinking by developing unique plots and characters, fostering originality in storytelling. 2. Communication – Enhance written communication by expressing ideas, humor, and creativity effectively through concise dialogues.
