

ARMY INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY

Dighi Hills, Alandi Road, Pune-15

ACTIVITY REPORT OF OPEN SOURCE CLUB FOR THE YEAR OF (2016-17)

OPEN SOURCE CLUB (OSS)

Club Objective

01. The Open Source Club (OSS Club) at the AIT is a Student driven activity composed of members from all around campus and out into the community who share a common enthusiasm free, open source software. Our focus is on building a strong community of open source users and developers in order to bring the benefits of open development, open standards, and free software to the college and university community.
02. The OSS Club aims to create awareness on FOSS and to promote its usage among the student community, professionals, government officials and the public. Apart from the advocacy programme, the club is also concentrates on consultancy, training and development of Open Source software.
03. Workshop on Migration from Windows to Linux Workshop, to help students migrate from windows to Linux. The primary focus of the workshop is on the basics of Linux operating system. The workshop include the installation of Linux. It also include a brief overview of the Free and Open source software in general. The participants will also familiarized with the FOSS equivalent of the commonly used proprietary software.
04. Guest lectures and hands on various open source tools by eminent personality from industries.
05. Student from BE and TE are to taking and suppose to take free lectures for student of SE and BE.
06. Web based project and other embedded project by using BBB and Raspberry-pi and andrino Kits.

ARMY INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY

Dighi Hills, Alandi Road, Pune-15

Events	Dates
1. Jumpstart with Web Interface	20 Aug. '16 and 26 Aug. '16
2. Intro to Analytics using R	3 rd Sep '16
3. Coding Contest	18 th Sep'16
4. Workshop on Raspberry Pie	1 st Oct'16
5. Hackathon	7 th Oct'16 (Tentative)

1. Conducted National level Hackathon (INNERV 2.0)

