Objectives of activity (min 2)	Exclusive event For First years to explore their field of interest in RJing and audio engineering domains
Description of activity (50-150 words)	We conducted an exclusive event for first-year students to help them explore their interests in creative domains like RJing, audio engineering, and stage engagement activities such as Mic Drop. The event provided a platform for newcomers to step out of their comfort zones and experience the thrill of voice modulation, sound editing, and public speaking. Through interactive sessions, hands-on activities, and live performances, students got a glimpse into the world of audio production and media. The event aimed to spark curiosity, build confidence, and encourage fresh talent to pursue their passion in these exciting fields.
