Assignment No 2

Answer the following in about 100 words each: (5 marks each)

My fondest childhood memory...

When I grow up...

Why I think friendship is important...

The things without which I simply couldn't live without...

The difficulties of being a teenager...

ASSIGNMENT NO 3 (5 Marks Each)

- Food – You can write about what food you ate for breakfast, lunch, or dinner. Or write about your favorite foods, or your most memorable meal, or the coolest thing about a food you know.
- Dreams – Write something about a recent dream you had. Expand on the dream and see how far you can take the story. (Many great novels started out as dreams!)
- Animals – Choose an animal that interests or intrigues you and write about it. What would it be like to wake up as a tiger, or a zebra or fish?
- Fear – What are you afraid of? How could you overcome it?

ASSIGNMENT NO. 4 (10 M each)

- Find a world map and blindly put your finger on a spot. Then pretend you're a travel writer and write about a weird experience you had in that particular country.
- Imagine you are graduating in several months. Write a graduation speech to your fellow students. What would you say to inspire them? How would you make them laugh? What would you like them to remember?

Assignment No. 5- Finish the following stories (10 M each)

1. It is a freezing cold night. A man with two children knocks on your door and begs you to let them stay in your house for the night. You allow them in and give them a warm meal and a bed. The next morning they don't leave...
2. Jenny is babysitting her sister while her parents go out for dinner. She wants a game to play but instead finds something life changing in the cupboard. Could it be true? Could her parents actually do this to her...
3. While you are walking home, you notice that someone is following you. You pretend not to notice, but you are really scared. He follows you all the way home and then leaves. You sneak out the back door and start following them...
