AIT bags first prize in Chhatra Vishwakarma Awards 2018

Army Institute of Technology's project titled Mosquito detector, counter and alerter, won the first prize at Chhatra Vishwakarma Awards

timesofindia.indiatimes.com Education News

AIT bags first prize in Chhatra Vishwakarma Awards 2018 PUNE: Army Institute of Technology (AIT) bagged the first prize in the Chhatra Vishwakarma Awards 2018 jointly organised by All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE), Engineering Council of India (ECI) and Indian Society for Techni-cal Education (ISTE). AIT's innovators' team comprising Saurabh Singh and Nidhi Yadav, both from second year Electronics and Telecommunication Engineering, bagged the first prize for their project titled - Mosquito detector, counter & alerter. The team was mentored by GR Patil, head, electronics and telecommunication Department, AIT. The award under "any other rural appropriate technology" category was received from Vice- President of India, M Venkaiah Naidu, on January 21 in Delhi. AICTE Ministry of Human Resource Development, Govt. of India, Engineering Council of India (ECI), and the Indian Society for Technical Education (ISTE), jointly organised the Chhatra Vishwakarma Awards-2018" for the students of All India Council for Technical Education approved degree & diploma-level Technical institutions. The newly designed device by the students basically

TEAM RECEIVING AWARD FROM HON. VICE PRESIDENT

helps detect mosquitoes in a certain area based on its nature,

Press releases ...
(Click here)