

Flying officer Lavpreetsharma Alumnus of AIT-Mechanical (2010-14)

1. Second in overall FE; awarded merit scholarship.
2. First in SE mechanical; awarded merit scholarship.
3. First in TE mechanical in Pune University; awarded merit scholarship.
4. Member of "Team Galaxy Racing" supra saeindia ; bagged second position all over India in design category.
5. Presented and Published technical paper on " enhancement of rate of heat transfer using Delta wing vortices" in international conference on global initiatives held at Mumbai.
6. Stood first in BE mechanical; awarded merit scholarship.
7. Awarded best all-round student of 2010-14 trophy.
8. Placed in FMC technologies.

9. Joined Indian Airforce in flying branch.

10. Awarded most promising cadet award in d basic stage of training at airforce academy.

11. Stood fourth in flying and first in academics and first in overall order of merit in first stage of flying; awarded best in ground subjects trophy and best in overall trophy.

12. Chose helicopter stream to undertake not only offensive roles but also to work for humanitarian cause.

13. Stood second in flying , first in academics and first in overall order of merit in second stage of training.

14. Stood overall first in the entire course all streams (helicopter, fighter and transport) taken together.

15. Awarded the prestigious "sword of Honor" and "President's plaque".

16. Commissioned on 19 December 2015 .Led the passing out parade as the parade commander.

17. After flying Pilatus pc-7 in first stage, chetak single engine helicopter in second stage, mi-17 twin engine medium lift helicopter in third stage post commissioning ,is currently flying mi-17 v5 the most advanced inventory of IAF as of now.

18. First short service cadet that too from helicopter stream that too direct entry to get the sword of Honor.

अंकुर

Retrica
ANKI